

ord News

LY CITY-WIDE COMMUNITY NEWSPAPER

Frog Hollow Targeted for Major Home-Ownership Development

by Melissa Sepos

Construction in Frog Hollow is about to pick up pace with 84 new two-family, owner-occupied houses to be built in the next four years.

The development has been initiated by a collaboration called Pope Park Zion, LLC, which consists of three non-profit organizations: Mutual Housing Association of Greater Hartford, Southside Institutions Neighborhood Alliance (SINA) and Broad Park Development Corporation.

Pope Park Zion, LLC will make the homes available to low-to-moderate income families earning between $25,000 and $40,000, at a pace of two homes a month for 48 months.

Artist's rendering of the type of two-family homes that will be built in Frog Hollow by the Pope Park Zion, LLC, a corporation formed by Mutual Housing of Greater Hartford, Southside Institutions Neighborhood Alliance and Broad Park Development Corporation.

Construction is slated to begin at the end of April with a model home on Jefferson Street.

The new homes, designed by Crosskey Associates of Hart-

Continued on page 13