

SINA Breaks Ground for New Housing Development

On Thursday, October 25, the Southside Institutions Neighborhood Alliance (SINA) held an official ground-breaking ceremony for its $7 million Cityscape Phase IV housing project on Colonial and School Streets in the Frog Hollow neighborhood. When complete, the development will consist of 10 single family homes and eight two-family homes. Among those tossing up a ceremonial shovel-full of dirt were Hartford Police Chief Daryl Roberts, Frog Hollow-South NRZ Chair Douglas Campbell, City Councilwoman Veronica Airey-Wilson, SINA Executive Director Luis Caban, Mayor Eddie Perez, State Representative Kelvin Roldan, LISC Senior Program Director Andrea Pereira, Father Michael Galasso of Saint Peter's Church and State Senator John Fonfara. (Hart photo)